

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

The gold market has been active, and has been mostly owing to rumors from Washington of an over issue of bonds and fractional and other currency to a large amount. These, however, were officially contradicted after the price had advanced from 124 to 126, but an official contradiction might have been expected under any circumstances, as both the Secretary of the Treasury and his principal subordinates would be anxious to keep the facts of a blunder or defalcation from becoming public property. That the former had some reason to suspect that all was not as it should be the exclusion of the Superintendent and other employees of the Printing Bureau from the Treasury building, while an investigation into its affairs was ordered, would seem to indicate. Moreover the fact that duplicate securities are known to have been printed surreptitiously, and the explanation of the Superintendent and the numbers machine was out of order and repaired, the numbers of the revenue of satisfactory. With such unlimited facilities for production and jobbery during and since the war which certain Treasury officials have enjoyed, no disclosure of what they may have done would seem to come as much surprise among those who know them best. It is to be hoped that the investigation now being made may be thorough, and that the results, however damaging they may be to individuals, will be made fully public. After reaching 126, the market receded slowly but steadily to 124, and the closing transactions were at 124 1/2. Loans were made without interest and at 2 1/2 per cent for carrying.

A new gold bill passed by the House, having been rejected by the Finance Committee of the Senate, Congress should immediately amend the act authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to sell gold, by providing that no sales of gold belonging to the government shall be made, either publicly or privately, and that the amount in the Treasury, together with all future receipts from customs, shall be hoarded. This will put a stop to the Treasury jobbery in connection with secret gold sales, which has long been a public scandal, and materially strengthen confidence in the public credit both at home and abroad. With three or four hundred millions of coin in the Treasury, legal tender notes would be nearly equal to gold and our national securities would be enhanced in value accordingly, and the annual gold crop would be sufficient to meet the wants of commerce while this accumulation was going forward.

The stock market has undergone further improvement, and confidence in the stability of prices is gradually reviving. With one exception—that of Birch, Murray & Co.—there have been no new failures reported. The banks, however, still observe great caution in granting loans, and both names, securities and margins are closely scrutinized. The general rate for loans returnable on demand is 7 per cent, but the leading dealers in government securities can borrow at 5 1/2 per cent, showing that the supply of money is abundant and that confidence is alone necessary to enable borrowers in general to obtain accommodation on the usual margin. Meanwhile brokers are necessarily compelled to limit their business, both for this reason and the indisposition of the banks to certify checks beyond the actual balance to the credit of the drawers. A good deal of this distrust was occasioned by the overdraft of J. Meyer & Co. upon the Bank of North America, and the explosion of Mr. Meyer and his partner from an open board is regarded with satisfaction and as honorable to the board. There is less reluctance today to discount commercial paper, and the best grade passes at 7 1/2 per cent, the amount offered, however, being very limited. The mercantile community are awaiting the action of Congress upon the currency question and the tariff, and considering the importance of these matters, it is surprising that they make no effort to bring their views to bear upon the people's representatives at Washington, whose disapproval in dealing with the finances has justified an exhibition of impatience on their part. The further contraction of the currency should be stopped, and the more it is at all times allowed to regulate itself the better. The tariff and the internal revenue laws both need reduction, as at present they are a burden upon the people, and heavy to be much longer endured without loss of complaint.

At the ten o'clock session of the open board railway shares were firm at the closing prices of last evening, and afterwards in the lower half of the Stock Exchange they improved. At the first regular board the market continued firm, with an advancing tendency. New York Central closed 1 1/2 higher than at the same time yesterday, Erie 1 1/2, Reading 1 1/2, Michigan Central 1 1/2, Michigan Southern 1 1/2, Illinois Central 1 1/2, Cleveland and Pittsburgh 1 1/2, Rock Island 1 1/2, Northwestern 1 1/2, preferred 3, Fort Wayne & Ohio, and Mississippi certificates 1 1/2, Pacific Mail 1 1/2, Atlantic Mail & Canton 2, Mariposa preferred 1 1/2, Western Union Telegraph 1 1/2. Government securities sympathized with the advance in gold and the general market. Consols five-twentieths of 1865, of the new issue were 1/2 higher, seven-thirtieths of the second series 1/2. North Carolina size of the new issue advanced 1/2, Tennessee size of the new issue 3/4. At the ten o'clock open board the market was firmer than immediately after the call, when a slight reaction took place.
